"We are out drilling every day, squads right about and squads left about. I suppose you don't know anything about but we certainly do and we are well drilled for the big parade we are goin to have in New York, going up Fifth avenue. We get guard duty every other day, two hours on and four hours off. "There is a big French prison camp here, where we keep 5,000 German pris oners. They are a tough bunch of men to guard, but we are not afraid of them following articles were shipped: 180 | We have loaded rifles and fixed bayonets to play for us at night and we have boxing matches and moving pictures for

"We have a few inches of snow here in mer it is very warm. There are a lot of grapevines in France and the farmers make wine out of the grapes. They make a lot of money on it and they sell it to the American soldiers, three francs a bottle. That is 75 cents a bottle and ognac is $2 a bottle, but it is very strong, just like whiskey, and it doesn't take much to make a fellow drunk. "We sit in our barracks at night and sing soldiers' songs and we have a great time together. We have to do our own washing and clean up our guns in good chape. Rules are very strict in the army. "There are a lot of wild rabbits in the woods. The Frenchmen go hunting ev-ery day. * * * "Did you know that Charles Arbuckle ad been killed in action in France, and lot of other chums of mine? "There are a lot of big, beautiful farms in France and big mountains and deep valleys. It looks very beautiful in the summer time. I have been all over
